EX-KAISER PLANNING CHRISTMAS JUBILEE

Elaborate Ceremonies to Be Held and Herr Hohenzollern Will Preach the Sermon

By the Associated Press
London, Dec. 23.

William Hohenzollern has arranged for himself a Christmas celebration after the traditional style, as far as the circumstances will permit, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express from Amsterdam today. The arrangements, by the ex-emperor's insistence, will include religious ceremonies on Christmas Eve. The idea of using the village chapel for these, however, has proved impracticable for various reasons, one of them being a fear of popular hostile demonstrations. The service, accordingly, will be held in the drawing-room of Amerongen Castle, which will be converted into a chapel.

The ex-emperor desired to have the court chaplain, Dr. Ernest von Dryander, come from Berlin to preach the sermon at the Christmas Eve ceremony, but the Berlin Government, says the dispatch, has refused permission for the chaplain to go to Holland. The service consequently will be conducted by a German missionary from Zelst, near Amerongen, but Herr Hohenzollern himself will deliver the sermon.

Many friends of Count von Bentinck, the former emperor's host, have been asked to attend the service, the message adds, but have refused the invitation. The former ruler's audience, therefore, will consist of Count von Bentinck and his family, the ex-emperor's suite and the servants of the castle.

Christmas trees will be provided, as usual, for the celebration. Herr Hohenzollern cut these down himself, with the help of two men of the estate; in the Amerongen pine woods. The trees are being decorated and loaded with gifts, but the former ruler has requested that none be given him and the ex-empress.

The feature of the Christmas dinner will be turkey. In accordance with Prussian family custom Herr Hohenzollern will do the carving himself. There also will be a plum pudding, made after an old English recipe, which it is supposed the ex-emperor's mother, Princess Victoria, took to Germany with her from Windsor Castle.

Amsterdam, Dec. 23.—I learn from Amerongen that the German ex-Kaiser is much better today. His ear trouble has yielded to treatment and the nervous depression from which he has been suffering is gone to a slight extent. He has not yet, however, been out of his room. He passed the day mostly out of bed and attended to some correspondence. It is not true that the ex-Kaiser is ill.

There will be no Christmas celebration of any kind at the castle and no presents will be distributed by the royal exiles. All they will do probably will be to give a donation toward the village Christmas funds. There will be divine service in the private chapel on Christmas Eve and on Christmas Day.

The Hague, Dec. 23.—According to persistent rumors, the ex-Crown Princess of Germany is expected to arrive within a few days to join her husband on the Island of Wieringen.

HONOR WRIGHT'S MEMORY

M. Painleve Links Aviator's Name With That of Lafayette

Lemans, France, Dec. 23.—(By A. P.)—The names of Lafayette and Wilbur Wright were joined by former Premier Painleve, who spoke at the ceremonies incident to the laying of the foundation stone of the Wilbur Wright monument, here yesterday. This was because Lafayette was a deputy of the Department of Sarthe, of which Lemans is the chief town, from 1812 to 1822, and three eminent French aviators, Fonck, Hureaux and Nungesser, were natives of this department. After sketching the lives of the Wright brothers, M. Painleve said: "Let us honor Wilbur Wright's memory, first as a good worker for human progress; second, because he brought to France the aid of his genius. Let his memory be joined with those, his young fellow citizens, who spontaneously brought their heroism to our aviation service."

We Can Deliver Pianos Within City Delivery Zone Tuesday

Some homes keep up mother's music—some pianos are so enticing that she finds rest and pleasure in playing. Blessed the thing that can pull father's nose from the fold of his paper. Let paper go on the floor! Music! Mother is playing!

HARDMAN VOSE Pianos and Player-Pianos

The makers sent of their most charming productions for Gimbel Christmas selling—and Philadelphia's Demand for Musical Instruments is Greater Than Ever

And therein lies danger—the danger of hurriedly buying or carelessly buying—and making a mistake.

Hardman is the Piano of Grand Opera

—the rare "luck" of being best in purity of tone and most sympathetic in touch. No piano in the world has ever won the unstinted praise of so many of the world's great in music. And, like beauty to a real girl, praise has not turned the head. The makers—determined to win reward in quantity selling at moderate prices, instead of making the price high and limiting the pleasure of possession to a few.

Messrs. Hardman, Peck & Co., New York

On any fair basis of comparison, the Hardman is the best piano bargain. With it the choice of a very few other good makes—to meet all tastes.

Christmas Candies and Conserved Fruits—Gimbel Special Service

Year after year even those buying candies for their own dear children laughed at Gimbel statements regarding candy. And we have had dear, devoted women say, "oh, any candy is good enough for Sunday-school treats."

But we had taken our stand for pure foods—and they included pure candies—and we held to our plans. It was a part of the same campaign that ran out the dishonest short-weight lard can and other wrong practices.

Today—Gimbel Candies Are the Vogue

The release of sugar came so late that we feared a candy shortage. But all is well.
